

Passport to Food Allergy Awareness

Destination: kid-friendly fun!

Millions of children all around the world are living with food allergies. This free family event is for anyone who happens to be (or simply just knows) one of them! Siblings, classmates, friends, and family members will all benefit from a wide variety of educational and entertaining activities including:

- Storytime with “The BugaBees” and award-winning author Amy Recob
- “Ask the Expert” Q&A with a Dean board certified allergist
- Kids crafts with Learning Express Toys
- Goodie bags and giveaways
while supplies last!

The journey begins:
Saturday, May 18, 2013
10 AM to Noon
St. Mary’s Hospital

700 S. Park Street • Madison, WI

Please enter the Park Street ramp off Erin Street for free parking.
